

ISS Damage Control – Setting the Standards in Disaster Recovery

ISS Damage Control are one of the UK's leading providers of commercial and industrial disaster recovery services delivered across Britain and Ireland 24/7. We have invested heavily in providing a qualified and experienced team of engineers and technicians who are able to get businesses back up and running in the shortest possible time following fire, flood or accidental damage. Our teams are equipped to handle small incidents such as office or workshop fires right through to large and complex recovery operations.

ISS Damage Control, works with the UK's leading insurance and loss adjusting companies and our services include:

Immediate Disaster Support Services

- Fast response via our 24/7 disaster hotline
- Attendance and technical expertise of ISS Project Manager
- Immediate loss mitigation work

Restoration Services

- Full consultancy and project management for all losses
- Computer, electrical and electronic equipment decontamination
- Mechanical and industrial machinery restoration
- Structural decontamination and redecoration
- Building drying and dehumidification
- Specialist team for cleaning within confined spaces
- Building repairs
- Data recovery
- Document drying and recovery
- Mould treatment and control

Loss Mitigation Services

- Stabilisation and relocation of stock, equipment and machinery
- Water and debris removal
- Sanitisation and deodorisation
- Asset and 'beyond economical repair' logging
- Electrical safety testing
- Secure storage facilities

Technical Services

- Electronic and mechanical equipment decontamination
- Confined space and rope access working
- Chloride, bacterial and humidity analysis
- Recalibration and recommissioning
- P.A.T. testing

